Notes Drysuit is excellent! Superb comfort. It took me an absolute age to reconnect my inflator hose to my suit by which time my buddies had become quite cold! Equalising was an issue again. Stewart nearly wedged himself in the Viscount cockpit! Preparation for the dive translated as Stewart covering my face with talcum powder!

Notes The lads turn to fill my suit with air while I was inverted. I'm not sure how eloquent it looked but I achieved the desired manoeuvre and managed to exhaust the suit. Saw a pike which looked like an oriental sweetlips.
